A Text Book

For The Campaign
OF 1900.

BY W. H. HARVEY.

—THE AUTHOR OF—

"Coin's Financial School."

$ $ $ $ $

This book is now having a wonderful circulation. The retail price is 25 cents. In size it is 35 pages larger than "Coin's FINANCIAL SCHOOL," profusely illustrated with best paper, enclosed in two colors. Its treatment of the subjects of Money, Trusts and Imperialism, is exhaustive and yet simple and plain as the ABC's. It will educate and arouse the American people to a common sense of their homes and the heritage of free institutions. It tests organization and power. Coin on Money, Trusts and Imperialism may be expected to rally anew the forces of human liberty.

The republican convention at Waco last Tuesday and Wednesday, was a humbug.

DEWITT county has a candidate for sheriff. Gonzales has three candidates, and Lavaca—?

CONGRESSMAN R. B. Hawley says that his political course will be shaped by duty and circumstances, which being interpreted, means that the Hon. R. B. will again be a candidate for congress.

Houston is considerably worked up over the mysterious disappearance of the city's books and financial records. There is a warm campaign on there for the mayoralty and it is hinted that this has something to do with the loss of the books.

The late judgements from Kentucky state that there is much excitement there over the arrest of several of the republican state officers for complicity in the Godbold murder. Both governors are calling out the militia and it is feared a conflict cannot be avoided.

Three of our young boys—the GAZETTE will not give their names—have gotten themselves into serious trouble by shooting into a passing passenger train. The shot, evidently from a target gun, struck the heavy glass in the door of the car, punctured it and broke the glass. While The GAZETTE does not believe the boys did the shooting intentionally, yet under the law, if guilty, they are liable to a fine of from $50 to $200.

SPLIT WIPE OPEN.

Republicans Elected Two Delegations To National Convention—Green and Hawley Both U. M. Party.

— a small on the Glass.

Waco, Texas, March 7.—The State republican convention split wide open today. The fight against Green for National committeeman was the inspiration that brought on the division, and while the big chairman was top yet, the fight will be carried up to the National convention. The parliamentary slip yesterday afternoon afforded an opportunity to raise the question of temporary chairmanship, and the row commenced at the opening. Chairman Green was so delighted when he was told that Ferguson was defeated and his friend "Gosse-neck" was still on deck that he assumed that the rejection of the minority report of the committee substituting Ferguson for McDonald, elected the latter and forgot to put the majority report to a vote. This was used as a pretext for re-opening the question, and besides the correctness of the count yesterday was disputed. The big row is woefully barren of results. Green and Hawley were elected delegates by both conventions, and while the McDonald convention endorsed Green for National committeeman, the other convention did not endorse anybody. As a matter of fact the anti-Green men lacked the influence of a leader of strong personality and definite purpose. They tried hard to pull Hawley into it and begged him to announce for the National committeeman, but he would not do so. They will try to defeat Green at Philadelphia and they expect Hawley to aid them, but if they succeed in better than they did here Green will carry off another victory.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR!

Ask your physician this question, "What is the one great remedy for consumption?" He will answer, "Cod-liver oil." Nine out of ten will answer the same way.

Yet when persons have consumption they loathe all fatty foods, yet fat is necessary for their recovery and they cannot take plain cod-liver oil. The plain oil disturbs the stomach and takes away the appetite. The disagreeable fishy odor and taste make it almost unendurable. What is to be done?

This question was answered when we first made of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Although that was nearly twenty-five years ago, yet it stands alone today the one great remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs.

SCOTT'S

The bad taste and odor have been taken away, the oil itself has been partly digested, and the most sensitive stomach objects to it rarely. Not one in ten can take and digest the plain oil. Nine out of ten can take SCOTT'S EMULSION and digest it. That's why it cures so many cases of early consumption. Even in advanced cases it brings comfort and greatly prolongs life.

SCOTT & BROWN, Chemist, New York.
